Building Loan is Attacked in Letters to Editor

Thinks Location Unsuitable for Structure

To the Editor of Our Town:
The generalities expressed in last week's issue of Our Town by the Community Centre Committee, explaining the advantages of the proposed increase to the bonded indebtedness of the borough to provide funds for a $150,000 Community Building, leaves the voters with very little in the way of facts that would warrant their approval of the bond issue.

No mention has been made of any provision for the necessary maintenance of such a building. If there is a fixed cost of $8000 per year for interest and sinking fund on the loan, it is only reasonable to believe that it would cost as much more to maintain the building.

The committee states that an increase of a little over two mills in taxes would cover the cost. Five mills might be a more likely figure.

Five mills a year for what? Is it not true that most of the organizations that the plan provides for are strictly social?

A community such as Narberth should have a place where gatherings of various kinds and sizes can be held at a reasonable cost, and the experience of other like communities has proven that such buildings should be owned and managed by a responsible organization.

Why attempt to spoil a piece of ground that will without doubt, within the next 10 to 15 years, be too small for the playground and outdoor recreation purposes for which it was purchased?

The present location of the baseball and football field is the only one large enough on the tract. This is by fact of actual measurement.

This would mean that the building would have to be located at the western end of the lot, the extreme western limit of the bor-

Writer Questions Expense of Project

To the Editor of Our Town:
The proposed community center building has been the subject of so many vague statements and generalities on the part of its sponsors that I will appreciate it if you will give me space in "Our Town" to present the following facts about it which are revealed by any serious examination of the project. It seems only fair that the people of Narberth should have, in place of the broad, vague and meaningless statements of the committee, an accurate summary of what this project would cost them and the obligations which it would incur for them over a period of years.

The statement made by some of the community building enthusiasts that it would result in an increase of only .002 in the tax rate is absurdly ridiculous. A .002 tax increase would yield a revenue of about $7200 a year. In the face of this figure, it is significant that the committee did not give out a detailed statement revealing how they arrived at the .002 increase.

Following is a statement of the probable annual cost which has been supplied by a certified accountant, and which is based on his general experience in such matters. It has been figured most conservatively, and as he is not a resident of Narberth, it may be considered as completely impartial:

Store Robbed.

The Narberth Variety Store, on Haverford avenue, was entered and robbed early last Friday morning.

The thieves gained entrance by breaking the glass in a window overlooking the alley.

Ladies' dresses, children's clothing, penknives, etc., were taken to a value of $250.

One of the bus drivers reports having seen several strange Negroes on Haverford avenue at three in the morning. No arrests have been made.

Club Holds Joint Meeting

Community Club and League of Women Voters

On Tuesday of this week the Club and the League women combined forces and had a very profitable and instructive meeting. As so many of the women are members of both organizations it would have taken a Philadelphia lawyer to tell "tother from which."

The regular business of the club was first disposed of. Mrs. Frye asked that members interested in any way in dramatics, whether to take part in plays or to help with the property end, give her name. She thinks there should be at least fifty so interested.

Mrs. Douglass said that a few members had expressed a desire to resume the gym class, but that there must be more to make the class pay. Will all the women who would join the class to be conducted by a competent instructor communicate with Mrs. Douglass at the earliest date possible?

Mrs. Boryer announced the postponement of the first swimming lesson until next week, Friday, November 7.

Mrs. Harris asked that all news for "Our Town" be sent to her before Wednesday evening, as it is better for all club news to be under one heading, and must reach "Our Town" before Thursday.

Mrs. Jacobs gave a very interesting resume of the Federation sessions, telling the outstanding feature of each day's meeting.

Mr. W. R. D. Hall, as a representative of Narberth Council, gave a most instructive and interesting talk on the roads and streets of our borough, dividing his subject into the history, present status, and future of roads. He explained how and why roads can and may be paved and dedicated, the laws concerning borough roads, and the reason for presenting the question of a bond issue for road building at the coming election.

Mr. Richard D. Abel spoke as a representative of the Community Center House Committee. He said that if the bond issue for the building is approved at the election, the committee will proceed at once to the business of deciding as nearly as possible with public consent the best location on the playground and the best apportionment of funds toward completion of the playgrounds, the building itself, and the equipment.

The meeting was then turned over to the League with Mrs. Fowler presiding. She introduced Mr. Thomas Raeburn White, who spoke on "Constitutional Convention." He made it very clear that people are not voting for the adoption of changes in the State Constitution made by the convention, but merely voting for or against holding the convention. In explaining why the Constitution needed revising, he said that the tremendous increase in industries and population make it necessary to meet new conditions; that laws governing old conditions could not suffice for today. Amendments, of which there are twenty-four in our State Constitution," he said, "are like new patches on a very old horse." He rapped the Magistrate system in Philadelphia and pointed out the complexity of our present ballot. He closed his very enlightening talk with the assertion that the people must be aroused to take more interest in public affairs, and to put Pennsylvania higher on the list of States in its voting percentage. Owing to the length of the meeting, the usual social hour was omitted.

The Seniors who did not attend the Halloween party given by the Juniors on Tuesday evening missed a jolly good time. With the exception of two or three onlookers everybody was in costume and masque. The Juniors presented a clever and comical sketch, to the keen enjoyment of the Seniors. Games, dancing and a weird ghost story that brought forth blood-curdling squeals and yells formed the rest of the program, not to mention all the good things to eat, which played a large part in the evening's entertainment.

Advocates of Bond Issues Present Final Arguments

Council Policy Attacked By Street Petitioners

The Narberth Street Improvement Association, which is a voluntary, non-partisan organization advocating the passage of the Street Bond issue at the election next Tuesday, has requested publication of the following statement for which they assume the responsibility:

"The reason why the street issue has become the most discussed local matter now before the people of Narberth is because it grows out of a situation which is and always has been unfair to a large group of the people. Whenever such a situation exists, it arouses intense interest and vivid discussion. This street issue is not a matter of recent origin but instead has been a fight between small groups of people on unpaved streets and the Borough Council for many years. And up to the present, Council has won every battle. Now, fortunately, an appeal is being made to the voters themselves, and the people on the unpaved streets are confident that their fellow-citizens will give them more considerate treatment than they hitherto have been able to receive from Council.

"There are one or two members of Council who have been uniformly courteous and sympathetic in their attitude toward the people on the unpaved streets, but as a whole, Council has treated the people on the unpaved streets as though they were rank outsiders, having no claim upon even the courteous attention of their representatives. The people have been told at Council meetings, 'It is your own hard luck if you have been foolish enough to buy property on an unpaved street,' which was, of course, equivalent to saying, 'If you don't like it you can leave.'

"Different groups of people, each representing their own street, in past years have repeatedly sought Council as a source of authentic information and advice as to what they should do to secure pavements. They have been given what seemed to be complete information but, after complying with all the requirements, previously stipulated by Council, they have always been confronted by some later disclosed reason why nothing could be done. It was not until this year when all of the people on all of the unpaved streets merged into their present organization and presented a united front that Council took the action by which the present bond issue is enabled to appear on the ballots next Tuesday. And even in this present case Council has remained true to its old form by creating an obstacle which was not revealed until three weeks before election. So far as we are aware, the only positive and official statement of policy which Council has ever disclosed in reference to our unpaved streets was the recent passage of President Hall's resolution, which was distinctly discouraging to the legitimate expectations of the Councilmen had aroused in us.

"When groups of residents on unpaved streets have appeared before Council as petitioners, asking for nothing but a few loads of ashes or cinders to fill in and absorb the mud holes on their streets, they have been told that the streets were private thoroughfares. But when the same streets had been surfaced at the expense of the property owners and were being cut up by the passage of heavy motor trucks on Borough work and the same people appeared before Council to protest against the damage and to request that the traffic be diverted, they have been told that their streets were public thoroughfares.

"This problem of unpaved streets has been, for years, the most acute and pressing matter facing the community as a whole, but Council has never adonted toward it any constructive policy. Their attitude has always been to

Building Committee Replies to Criticism of Loan

On Tuesday next the voters of Narberth will be asked to vote upon a proposed bond issue in the amount of $100,000 for the purpose of developing a complete community center to care for both the indoor and outdoor activities of the community.

"While the general plan has received the endorsement of many local organizations as well as individual citizens, there have, as is to be expected of any major project, been criticisms of varying character," the Building Committee stated this week.

"These criticisms, fortunately, are not of a serious nature," the committee says, "and are criticisms which would not have been made, in most instances, if those raising the issue had taken the opportunity of informing themselves of the reports the committee has from time to time given to the public.

"As the issue goes to a vote, however, it is felt that perhaps the loose ends should be pulled together, in order that those voters still in doubt on certain points might be informed thereon. The committee has reviewed certain criticisms that have been printed and others that have from time to time come to the attention of its members."

"One criticism heard," says the committee, "is that the plans proposed lack definiteness. While certain defined phases have not been settled, it is because, inherently, they cannot be settled until money is available to get engineering data, finished architectural plans and builders' bids, although these have been closely proximated and the development is possible of execution along the general lines proposed."

"The committee quotes from 'Our Town' issue of April 26 last, carrying an article which opened thus: 'The architect's plans for the proposed community center building were shown to Narberth's organizations at a meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday night. About 100 interested citizens attended and listened with considerable interest to the exhaustive report presented by the committee. This report, which goes into every phase of the plans, finances, control, etc., is printed in full in this issue of 'Our Town.'"

"Thus," says the committee, "was the full report, covering six full columns of that issue, given to the public, and it answered many questions that have since been raised. Copies of the complete report are available to anyone interested. Apply either to T. Noel Butler, 229 Essex avenue, or to 'Our Town' for the issue of April 26."

"An interesting criticism," the committee points out, "was one raised by a correspondent in last week's issue of 'Our Town,' suggesting that if the borough has $100,000 to spend, it would benefit the borough more by devoting it to the opening of Essex avenue under the railroad and beautifying the station; and replies that a very similar suggestion was recently answered by reminding the suggestor that it is not the province of the borough to spend money on private railroad property and that any improvement about the station was one that would have to be cared for by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Another suggestion was made in 'Our Town' several weeks ago that the committee explain in detail how it arrived at its statement that the resultant tax increase would be only about three mills, and says the committee: 'This again was quite definitely covered in the comprehensive report that has been referred to.'

The committee says again that the tax increase would be less than three mills; would be .02718 per cent., to be exact by using the calculations of the borough secretary shown in the last several issues of this paper in advertising the 'Notice of Election' and to answer the correspondent as to the other items, such as taxes, depreciation, heat and light, guardian and janitor service, etc., the committee says: 'There would be no taxes, as it would be borough property. The guardian of the

Legal Minds Await Legion Trial

Friday, Nov. 7, Final Arrangements Made

Since the last issue of "Our Town" a great deal of water has passed under the bridge. Likewise, the week has been one of feverish activity on the part of both plaintiff and defendant. Telegrams have been received from all parts of the country requesting immediate information as to the result of the trial and the final decision. The press of the country is aroused over the incident and many of the newspapers have forwarded requests for "reporters' passes" in order to cover the trial direct. The Legion feels, however, that it has a duty to the borough citizens and positively will not issue passes of any description. It will be a big event and worth far more than the 75 cents charged for admission to Elm Hall.

It is understood that several cases on various Court Dockets throughout the country have been held up pending the decision handed down in this trial. Little did the Legion realize that this case would develop into a situation that runs the gamut of human emotions—love, hate, trust, anger, bitterness—indeed it passes belief. Some of the questions lying on the fringe of the case are vital to everyone, causing untold hardships, misery and trouble in the world's affairs. As an example, look at a very few of the vital issues to be decided:

Are cross eyes a ground for divorce?

Can a man be faithful to his public duties while contention reigns in his home?

Shall we suppress the press? Water rusts iron. Is it then harmful to the internal organs?

When is a jury not a jury?

Together with many questions that must be kept in reserve in order that the defendant will not realize the extent to which the Legion has gone in preparing the case.

It is advisable that you get your tickets immediately in order that you may not miss this sensational event. You may rest assured that it will be an evening long to be remembered and the greatest value for 75 cents that you have ever had.

Efforts are still being made to obtain information in connection with the bribe mentioned in last week's issue of "Our Town," but to date, every clue has failed. The case will bring before the bar (legal bar) the master legal minds of the country, as both sides are organizing and preparing to fight it out to the last ditch. Threats and counter-threats have been passing from one side to the other, even to the extent of great bitterness and enmity between the opposing attorneys. It was only through the combined efforts of the entire Legion Committee that kept them from coming to blows at the recent meeting to arrange the trial.

Of course rumor upon rumor is coming in from every side to the Legion headquarters, one being that the gentleman under suspicion has reserved a passage to Europe for his possible use immediately after the trial. Where there is any ground for the rumor, an investigator is immediately put upon the track of same with order to sift it to the bottom.

The Legion has gone to an immense amount of trouble in preparing this trial and certainly trusts that the citizens of Narberth will support same in every respect. The tickets are only 75 cents and each one sold indicates another friend of the Legion. Everyone realizes that it is the backbone and the largest and most powerful organization in the country in keeping alive that spirit of Americanism which means so much to us in these troubled times.

Whether you are able to attend the trial or not, why not "play the game" and purchase one or more tickets. Remember 8.15 P. M. Friday, November 7.

The Legion is standing by Narberth. Is Narberth standing by the Legion?

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Nash and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Cooke drove the "Honeymoon Express" to the top of Pike's Peak last Saturday, October 25. They report snow several inches deep on the summit.

A HUMAN CAR

Many Interested in Hale Exhibit.

Automobile dealers as well as the general public are being highly mystified by the uncanny performances of the "Talking Buick" which began in the Ardmore show rooms of Allan C. Hale, Inc., last night. Large numbers of auto owners are making pilgrimages to the show rooms to try their hand at solving the secret of the talking car.

The car talks, and answers questions as if human. To prove that the thing is not done by obvious mechanical means, spectators are permitted to move the car and to examine it for hidden wires or talking devices.

The novel car is not only a wonder to the visitors to the show rooms but is also a source of mystery to the attaches of the Hale agency. "Even we don't know how the trick is done," confessed one of the representatives at the Ardmore show room. "The stunt is being conducted by a man outside of our organization who is making a circuit of the various Buick agencies exhibiting his talking car. He sells his novelty to us as a vaudeville performer does his act but he keeps the secret to himself."

Visitors who went to the Hale agency to view the talking car were also told of the record made by the Standard Buick "6" in its 15,000 miles economy run which was completed Tuesday, October 28. The car met its original schedule by 81 hours and 10 minutes. The test run was conducted by the Allan C. Hale, Inc.

Narberth Boy Scout Happenings.

Monday's meeting was well attended, there being 22 boys present. Tests passed:

Fred F. Patten passed test in cooking and is now a second-class scout. E. Smith, second-class test cooking. R. Caldwell, cooking. W. Harris, four tests—first-aid, fire building, compass and knife and axe.

A MASQUERADE

Juniors and Seniors Celebrate Halloween

Halloween, with its proverbial apples, cider, pumpkins and ghost stories, and yet as jolly as if it were brand new! Perhaps the Juniors gave their masquerade Tuesday night deliberately to make the Seniors discard their dignity. Whoever created the commotion one couldn't quite distinguish, but there was bedlam.

Three prizes were awarded for the most successful costumes, and the first of these was given to Mrs. F. S. Follmer, a harem lady, for the prettiest costume, plus the prettiest girl. Marion Trotter, who wasn't quite sure what she meant to be when she started, found she had won the "funniest" prize as a little pickaninny, Evelyn Worth, straggling in labeled as "Lost Baggage," won for herself the honors as the most original.

The biggest hit of the evening was a very clever take-off on "Cinderella," worked up by Jeanette Gillis. But the heroine of this version was "Cinderella," Emily Needham, and instead of the glass slipper she had a mysterious nose, which she lost at crucial moments. The fairy grandmother, Bessie Miesen, being of a modern temperament, discarded the broom and rode in upon a vacuum cleaner. The two stepsisters, Margaret Livingston and Helen Caldwell, also added some realistic modern touches to the old idea. Peg Eckbert was the hero of this drama, the tall, dark, stunning Prince of "Weeps and Wails." Upon her shoulders fell the weight of the plot, which reduced itself to the theme of finding a face upon which to fit the stray nose.

After this spurge of frivolity the Juniors are planning a normal club meeting for Tuesday night, November 3, at 8 o'clock in the Y. W., when they really hope to do some business.

NOTICE TO HUNTERS

Attention is called to the following ordinance prohibiting gunning and trapping in the borough of Narberth. Any violation of this ordinance should be promptly reported to the Chief Burgess or Chief of Police:

"An ordinance to prevent the firing of guns, pistols, rifles or other firearms, and to prevent the shooting of song or other birds or rabbits, squirrels or opossums within the corporate limits of the borough of Narberth."

The Council of the borough of Narberth does ordain:

"Section 1. All persons are prohibited from firing any guns, pistols, rifles or firearms when in the borough limits, under penalty of ten dollars ($10) for each and every offense; one-half of the penalty to be paid to the informer."

"Section 2. No person shall hunt or kill any song or other birds, nor destroy their nests, nor hunt or kill any rabbit, squirrel or opossum under penalty of ten dollars ($10) for every offense; one-half the penalty to be paid to the in-former."

"Passed this 20th day of October, A. D. 1896.

President of Council.

"Attest: A. P. Redifer,
Clerk of Council.

"Approved this 23rd day of October, A. D. 1896.

"A. H. Muller, Chief Burgess."

Letters to Editor

THINKS BUILDING IDEA RIDICULOUS

ough. A long way for a lot of folks to go to exchange a book.

A building on any part of the playground would be useless for musical or any other such affairs,
as it is directly exposed to the worst noises of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A Community Building should be centrally and conveniently located, even though the site should cost four or five thousand dollars,
which would be a small item if anyone were to consider the future use and the life of the building.

The bond issue to be voted on next Tuesday is to provide funds
to erect a building on the playground, and voters who think twice, or even think once, cannot approve the proposition.

The various organizations in the borough may approve the plan;
their approval costs them nothing, as organizations, neither does it commit them to anything. They have all to gain and nothing to lose, as organizations; but spending the people's money for them
is a matter that requires serious
thought and consideration.

R. J. Edgar.

ATTACKS FIGURES

Interest at 4 1/2% (the rate might be higher as we are so close to the legal limit of borough indebted- ness) .....	$4500
Sinking Fund on the basis of mat- uring the bonds in 30 years .....	3200
Salary of man to have administra- tive charge of the building (An absolute necessity) .....	3000
Salary of janitor .....	1800
Depreciation on furnishings and equipment, figured conservatively at 10% .....	1000
Heat .....	1500
Light .....	600
Insurance rate 25c per $100 per year .....	375
Repairs and maintenance based on the usual accounting square-foot- age allowance per year .....	300
Total .....	$16,375

The above figures are most conservative and there are, of course,
many incidental and smaller items which would have to be added to the total. Even without these items the above total yearly expense would necessitate a tax increase of .005
which represents practically a 33 1-3 per cent. increase in the borough tax rate of .016. This expense will remain practically constant year after year, for, although the interest payments will gradually be reduced as the principal is paid off, this saving will be offset by increased expense
for maintenance and depreciation.

And we should all remember that we would be very close to the limit of legal borough indebtedness and that the passage of this issue might make it impossible for us to obtain more necessary improvements which may become needed in a few years,
without placing everyone in the borough in danger of a large, immediate assessment.

Another point that I would like to take this opportunity of calling to the attention of the people of Narberth is the fact that the committee is pledging $50,000 that they do not have. The trust fund from the Y. M. C. A. falls short of that amount by many thousands of dollars and the balance is only figured on paper as representing what the committee hopes to get from other organizations. As a matter of fact,
in regard to the Y. M. C. A. trust fund, what right, either moral or legal, has this committee to say that they will donate it toward the community building project, or that if he building project does not go through that they will send the fund
"out of Narberth?" Haven't the original subscribers to that fund the right to say whether or not that shall be done, or at least to be consulted?

Another question that has been repeatedly asked and as repeatedly evaded, is the question of just how the available funds are to be spent.
A few months ago the statement was made that it included just the building. A more recent statement is that it includes not only the building, but also the cost of fixing up the complete playground.
In none of the conflicting statements that have been made is it supposed to include the cost of furnishing,
equipping and making the building
ready for use. How does the committee propose to raise the necessary ten or fifteen thousand dollars for this purpose—by another bond issue
next year?

In addition, most people will agree that the proposed site of this building is the worst that could possibly be found. First, because it is off in one remote corner of the borough, making it inconveniently inaccessible to the vast majority of Narberth residents; and second, because it is in a pocket beside the railroad. Think of trying to enjoy a concert, lecture or play between 8
and 10 in the evening, just the hours
when the Western freight is going through, to the tune of a long train
every two or three minutes!

I believe that many of the voters of Narberth would be in favor of a much more modest, similar project,
more in keeping with the borough's purse, but I cannot believe that any thinking person will want to vote
for a scheme which is obviously too elaborate for Narberth. Is it not true that with the proposed bond issue and the trust fund, which may or may not be available, we will have only half a loaf, and that we will only become subject in years to come to a long series of additional expenses? Would not this 33 1-3 per cent. increase in our tax rate be better spent for any one of several necessities that we need and do not have—such things as an extension of Essex avenue under the railroad,
additional police protection, streets
kept in better condition, better street
lighting, better schools?

ATTACKS ATTITUDE OF

do nothing. For years the meetings of Council have been disturbed by delegations of petitioners from unpaved streets. That ceaseless agitation has kept the matter continually at the front, but Council has at no time revealed any realization that it was a matter in which there was a community interest and on which they might naturally be expected to formulate a policy of relief. If Council had at any time in the past proposed any feasible plan for improving these streets, the residents on those streets would have responded. Instead, those residents, when talking to individual members of Council, have been treated with an arrogant contempt such as only a long and apparently permanent tenure in office can develop in the mind of a public official.

"President Hall, of Council, speaking at a meeting of the Women's Community Club last Tuesday afternoon emphasized
the great expense which the Borough now incurs in maintaining the streets which have already been paved. If it was his thought that the cost of maintaining the present pavements was a valid reason why no more pavement

should be laid, he revealed the attitude which the residents of unpaved streets have so frequently encountered in Council. That is that Council was interested only in those streets which are already paved and seemed to think it to be entirely fair and proper to tax the residents on all of the streets in order to maintain some of the streets. We know that this sentiment is not shared by our fellow-citizens on the paved streets. That is why we are glad that the present bond issue gives us an opportunity to appeal from the arbitrary and unfair indifference of Council
to the more reasonable and neigh-borly sentiments of the entire community.

"It is undoubtedly true that the residents on the unpaved streets,
when buying their properties, have relied upon promises of pavements which were made by persons having no authority to make such a statement. Such promises, of course, are not binding upon Borough Council in any way. The fact remains, however, that the people on these unpaved streets
are now many of them old residents and that all of them are paying taxes without which the revenues of the Borough would be materially less. No one would call them an undesirable group of citizens nor state that the Borough would be better off if they should all leave town.

"The people on the unpaved streets have no complaints to make regarding Narberth as a community. They are loyal supporters of all Narberth institutions and their trade at the local stores forms an important part in the commercial prosperity and bank deposits of the Borough. But they are the victims of an unfair set of circumstances which they did not originate and which they individually are unable to improve.

"If there is any voter in Nar-berth or any group of voters who question the necessity or desirability of paving these streets, we will be glad to give them a free automobile ride through the sections where pavements are needed.
We are confident that no one would return from such a ride
without believing that the pavements are needed and that to provide them is a bigger job than individuals can be expected to finance.

"There is no resident of Nar-berth who would not share the present feelings of the people on the unpaved streets if he should happen to move to one of those streets and appear as a petitioner before Council. There is a larger issue involved than the mere paying of a few streets. It is this:
Are the public affairs and finances
of the Borough of Narberth being fairly administered for the greatest good of the greatest number or is there instead, in the mind
of Council, an arbitrary indifference
toward the legitimate aspirations
of some of the people to obtain for their parts of the community a vitally necessary public improvement which is already enjoyed at the public expense by the rest of the community.

"Is there any fair-minded voter who, when such an issue is presented, can fail to see the justice
and fairness of the street cause?
Is the experience of the people on the unpaved streets means anything, it proves that any group of people approaching Council or any legitimate project which did not meet the desires of Council, might and probably would be treated with indifference. A vote for the street bond issue is an assertion that in the last analysis

the ballot is still the sovereign power in Narberth.

"We are helpless without the votes of several hundred fellow-townsmen who are already enjoying paved streets. Is it a vain and foolish hope on our part to expect these votes? Do we as neighbors and friends merit your sympathetic support, or is Council right
in regarding us as unfortunate beings, who, because of our original mistake in buying Narberth
property must forever pay taxes and never receive therefrom all of the benefits which you enjoy? Are we misjudging the sentiments of our fellow-townsmen when we say that we feel confident that a majority will vote in favor of the street bond issue next Tuesday?

"Narberth Street Improvement Association.

"Robert F. Wood,
Secretary."

The first concert of the season
given by the Main Line Orchestra will be held in the Ardmore Theatre, Ardmore, on Sunday afternoon,
November 16.

According to a statement made by Adolph Vogel, conductor, this concert will be the most interesting one that has yet been given by the orchestra. The orchestra this year is larger than in previous years and contains experienced talent that enables Mr. Vogel to program a wider range of work. This is especially noticeable in the first movement of the New World symphony, a work that calls for exacting ensemble that is usually outside the scope of amateur orchestras, and yet one which is finding a place on the program to be given next month.

As with previous concerts given by this organization, the interesting program will include a soloist well known in Main Line musical circles.

$18,000 LOST

Several weeks ago a Doctor submitted a list of his stock holdings which had been purchased during the past ten years. The total amount spent was $18,600; only one pays a dividend, and the present value of the entire list is under $800. ¶ Let this be a warning against buying unknown stocks without consulting a reputable broker or banker.

When we returned his list with the present values a few days ago,
the Doctor was not surprised, but he impetuously declared: "I am thru with buying stocks and bonds; from now on my money goes into mortgages and real estate." ¶ When asked if he ever owned a bond, and if he knew exactly what a bond represented, he answered "No."

Congratulating him upon his decision to place security ahead of a possible high return, I asked if he considered a $2000 closed 6% first mortgage on a Philadelphia city building, appraised by competent engineers, architects and real estate men at $4800 a good investment. He replied "most assuredly."

Instead of offering you a small mortgage on a small private property and necessitating your personal supervision to watch the maintenance, order repairs, tend to collections of interest and principal, and have you in an investment which he banks would not accept as collateral and which you could never sell before maturity—I have exactly the high security previously mentioned, a trust company looking after the property and collections, an investment the banks will accept as collateral for a loan of 80% of its value, and a security for which there is an active demand and so make possible a liquidation of your investment at any moment.

"The largest organization of its kind in the world, founded in 1867, occupies an entire city block in the heart of Philadelphia. The property has a value of $3,800,000 and bears a closed first mortgage of $2,000,000.
This mortgage has been divided into $1000 and $500 pieces, to make this investment available to the small investors, as well. These pieces are called "First Closed Mortgage 6% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds," and they yield 6.30% at the present price."

Just before the Doctor placed his order he said, "Then I can really obtain all the safety of a mortgage in the more convenient and more profitable bond—I am very glad you explained that to me."

We received orders for a number of the above-mentioned bonds from banks and individual investors and will be pleased to send a folder describing the details. Phone or write.

NEW MERION SCHOOL

To Cost $188,000—Bids Accepted Last Week.

The new public school which is to be built in Merion will cost $188,000. This sum includes the cost of erection and plumbing, heating, ventilating and electrical work.

Bids for the erection of the new school were opened last Monday in the office of the architect, Walter Smedley in the Stephen Girard Building, Philadelphia.

Bids for the general contract were as follows: Friel McLister, Inc., $156,555; Bowden Construction Company, $154,500; John McShain, $164,672; Monahan and Losse, $174,737; Turner Construction Company, $179,230; Cramp & Company, $175,000; F. M. Harris and Company, $182,681; J. D. Warren and Company, $164,988; R. C. Ballinger and Company, $171,400.

All were accompanied by a certified check of $5000, including that of one firm whose bid was $71,440. Before the board would receive the bid the firm was reached by telephone and it was learned they made an error of $100,000.

The board did not keep the check.

Bids for plumbing were: Bulman Bros., $17,956; William Newell Sons, $14,790; William H. Walters and Sons, $15,597; John Borden and Bros., $13,972; Boone and Sample, $18,225.

Bids for heating and ventilating were: John Borden and Bros., $17,450; A. G. McClintock and Sons, $14,595; Mello and Company, $16,780; William H. Walters and Sons, $16,987; Boone and Sample, $16,895; S. Faith and Company, $16,900; American Heating and Ventilating Company, $12,923; Merrit Electric Company, $6450; J. F. Buchanan and Company, $5556; W. B. Pangborn and Company, $4775.

The bids for the electrical work were: Katz and Shepherd, $6525; W. B. Buchanan and Sons, $5873; Sprang Electric Company, $7115;

ROCKLEDGE ANNEXATION

Is Opposed by Philadelphia in Petition Against Action.

The city and county of Philadelphia, through its city solicitor, Joseph P. Gaffney, and William F. Connor, counsel for the Philadelphia county commissioners, last week filed with Clerk of Courts Johnson in Norristown an answer to the petition for the annexation of the borough of Rockledge to the city strenuously opposing the same.

The proposed annexation had been the cause of much agitation in Montgomery county political circles.

It is denied in the answer that it is for the best interests of Rockledge or of the owners of real estate therein to be annexed to the city. On the contrary, it is held that "such annexation would be a positive detriment to the borough and of its inhabitants and of the owners of real estate therein for the reason that any advantages or improvements that could hope to be secured by such inhabitants and owners in the event of such annexation will necessarily be long deferred by reason of the imperative demands for public improvements in the territory now comprising the city of Philadelphia and the county of Montgomery."

It is further held that the proposed annexation would be wholly to the disadvantage of the city of Philadelphia, and that by a resolution passed by the City Councils and approved by the Mayor, September 9 last, it was resolved that such was the fact and the city solicitor was instructed to take steps to legally oppose the proposition.

The act under which the proposed annexation is asked to be made is also held by the city's counsel to be unconstitutional and invalid for the reason, it is said, that it is special legislation and for other reasons.

NEW WATER MAIN

Laid by Springfield Water Company.

Anticipating the forward strides that Eastern Delaware county is making and to provide for future requirements, the Springfield Consolidated Water Company is now constructing a great 16-inch pipe line, 44,470 feet long.

The starting of the line is at Radnor, Chester and Eagle roads, the dividing line between Marple and Springfield township. At this point it will connect with the existing 16-inch main from the Crum Creek pumping station.

The line will be laid in the bed of Eagle road in Springfield township to Haverford township. From Haverford township through Eagle road and Wynnewood road to Lower Merion township through Manoa, Grassland and Oakmont; continuing in Wynnewood road, which is in Lower Merion township to the Borough of Narberth.

From Wynnewood avenue along the dividing line of Lower Merion township and the Borough of Narberth to Windsor avenue. Through Windsor avenue to Iona avenue to Meeting House to Montgomery avenue, to Levering Mill road in Cynwyd, and there connecting with feeder line to the Cynwyd stand-pipe.

In addition to this line a section 1800 feet long will be constructed in Haverford road, Haverford township from Wynnewood avenue north connecting to present 16-inch main.

HATFIELD DRIVING CLUB

Plans Track to Succeed Belmont. Also Yearly County Fair.

According to plans formulated recently, Montgomery county will have a fair each fall. The Hatfield Driving Club, which has been conducting horse races on a tract along the Forty Foot road, near Hatfield, is behind the project.

Recently the club completed deals whereby it becomes the owner of the tract on which its track is located and the adjoining farm of C. M. Imswiler. The former plot contains between 16 acres while the Imswiler farm comprises 28 acres.

The farm has a desirable tract of woodland and the land now owned by the driving club is considered as an ideal site for an exhibition. Its location near Hatfield and Lansdale with good train and trolley service and good highways leading to it from all directions add to its desirability as a location for a fair ground.

It is said that the club is also considering the establishing of a mile track. With the abolishment of the Belmont track it is believed that there is an insistent demand for a racing establishment near Philadelphia where running, harness and automobile events can be staged. It is likely that the club will join one of the popular racing circuits and some classy events are anticipated.

Collisions Basis for Two Suits.

Collisions were the basis of two actions for damages brought in the office of the Prothonotary in Norristown this week.

Attorney T. Lane Bean has brought suit in behalf of Thomas F. Armstrong, against Luciano, of Bala, to recover $1000 damages alleged to have been sustained in a collision of the motor vehicles of the respective parties on City Line avenue, April 25 last.

Attorneys Lazelere, Wright and Lazelere have started action in behalf of the American Railway Express Company, against C. H. Crane, of Narberth, to recover $1000 damages alleged to have been sustained in a crash between the motor vehicles of respective parties February 4, 1923, on the Parkway.

Counties Gas Men Meet.

The Schuylkill District Employees' Association of the Counties Gas and Electric Company, held their first meeting of the season in Maennerchor Hall in Norristown last Tuesday evening. The session was featured by reports from those who attended the convention of the American Gas Association in Atlantic City last week and by an address by H. J. Ganser on the future of the gas and electric industry.

MEN TO GET OUT THE VOTE

Greenhorns Plan to Drive in North Ardmore on Election Day.

With the "Get-out-the-Vote Caravan" of the League of Women Voters as an inspiration, some men voters in Ardmore are taking up the job themselves.

Plans were worked out during the past week by which the Greenhorns, an organization of Ardmore men, who meet once a month to consider public questions, will try to get the biggest possible vote out in the North Ardmore election district on November 4.

To put this through the organization of which C. Clothier Jones is president, is sending out postcards, with a return card attached, to every voter in the district, urging him or her to "vote as you please, but vote."

The return cards is for the purpose of getting as many of the voters on record as possible, but the effort will not end there. A group of members of the organization will follow up the cards, even on election day.

On that day with a large number of automobiles, and with the assistance of the Boy Scouts, every voter will be "hunted down" and urged to vote.

One important thing the organization plans to do is to get the men to vote as early in the day as they can. In line with this they are asking women, when it is convenient for them to do so, to defer voting until after 10 o'clock in the morning.

Following up the election day activity, the Greenhorns have obtained permission from the school board to use the auditorium of the Junior High School, which seats 1200 persons, on the night of election day.

Election returns will be received and given to the audience, and Warwick James Price, one of the best-informed lecturers on current events in the country, will discuss the significance of the returns as they come in.

William Shupert, Coach.

William Shupert, formerly a Lower Merion High School athlete and later a member of Brown University football team, is now backfield coach at West Chester High. It will be of interest to watch how well his pupils have received his instructions when Lower Merion plays West Chester, November 1.

Paving Streets.

A nerve-racking day at the office; sleeplessness at night. Then the fruitless attempt to read and smoke yourself to sleep.

Instead of this method, many men are finding that taking a hot bath—as hot as they can stand—going to bed and relaxing their minds, brings sleep speedily.

You should know the joy and comfort provided by a Storage Gas Water Heater. It automatically restores the hot water in the tank as used.

Priced to please the modest purse. The cost of operation is surprisingly low.

OUR TOWN

LOCAL M. E. CHURCHES

Join in Philadelphia District Revival Services.

Simultaneous revival services in a thousand Methodist Episcopal churches throughout the Philadelphia area began last Sunday. Local churches took part.

There was a general exchange of pastors in the pulpits of this area for the first Sunday. Group meetings were held all this week. This Sunday as a part of the revival movement there will be an every-member communion in every church of the Philadelphia-New Jersey-Delaware district. A drive on "backsliders" is to be a part of the campaign.

"The reclamation of the 'backslider' would set the church on fire with a new zeal to save those who have never acknowledged Jesus Christ," said Bishop Joseph I. Berry, resident bishop of the area, discussing the revival. "The time has come to plead for the lost souls of the community. Thousands of church certificates have been forgotten or hidden away in attics. A house-to-house drive should be made to unearth these documents."

The revival plans do not include a series of large mass meetings. Rather, it is intended, explains Bishop Berry, to give special emphasis to the individualism in the work of soul-winning.

"Consecrated personality, dominated by the Holy Spirit, will do what is needed," continued Bishop Berry. "Let us surrender ourselves definitely and utterly to his dominance and leadership. That will mean a revival of spiritual power in many of our halting churches, churches that need nothing so much as the spirit-wrought work of grace. 'We have been putting much stress upon the temporalities of the Church. We have been planning and pleading for money. But the time has come to plan and plead for lost souls. A real revival will instantly help every benevolent cause.'"

LAST MINUTE RUSH

For Licenses Faces Bureau in Spite of Its Precautions.

"Apparently the last two weeks in December are again to find thousands of owners of motor vehicles frantically storming the Bureau of Motor Vehicles at Harrisburg in a belated effort to get the license tags they might have had in October."

This statement was made by Paul D. Wright, Secretary of Highways. "Although an application form has already been mailed to every motor car owner in Pennsylvania," continued Mr. Wright, "the latter part of December is going to find the eleventh hour crowd just as large as ever."

"This year there are no extensive application blanks to fill out—there is no necessity of visiting a notary public. All the applicant must do is sign his name to the card mailed him, attach his remittance and return the application to Harrisburg. Nothing could be simpler."

"Despite the simplicity of the new system only 2000 applications are being received daily. For a while the daily average was 6000, but this figure has dropped."

"I suppose there will be a clamor for an extension of time to January 1, so that negligent owners may drive their cars with this year's license. But why should we grant an extension? The owner without tags January 1 will have only himself to blame. He has the application now. He cannot say he is trying to save interest money, because the interest on his fee will be less than five cents. Men do not go hunting or fishing, nor do they get married without a license. They are prompt to take out these papers. Why should they not be prompt in taking out their automobile licenses?"

"The State Highway Department has done its part. Now it is up to the car-owner. At this time the Bureau of Motor Vehicles is able to act on applications within 36 hours after their receipt."

Court Refuses to Hear School Restraint Action.

The Common Pleas Court in Norristown refused to hear argument on an equity action brought by certain residents of Montgomery township against the school district to restrain the directors from applying a recent loan of $30,000 to other than school purposes, providing that the special loan is not declared invalid because of alleged fraud. The refusal of the Court to hear argument was based upon the allegation that the proceedings were not in proper legal form.

The advertising columns form a directory of progressive merchants. Refer to them often.

DISTRICT ASSESSORS TO GO

County Salons Think Them Responsible for Under-Assessments.

At the thirty-eighth convention of the Pennsylvania Association of County Commissioners held in Reading three weeks ago discussion of measures sponsored by its Legislative Committee, of which Captain Henry M. Stein is chairman, resulted in the acceptance of bills to be introduced at the next session of the Legislature.

County Commissioners, Stout, Crawford and Keelor, of Montgomery county, were among the 300 County Commissioners, solicitors and clerks present. More than 67 counties were represented.

One bill discussed would permit County Commissioners to make purchases not to exceed $300 without advertising for bids. The limit is now $100.

A bill to create a county board of three Assessors with the necessary assistants to be appointed by Court or County Commissioners with the option of third-class city Councils naming one member and accepting the county board's assessment for taxation, is also sponsored.

The change if passed by the State Legislature, would mean that the present property assessor for each district of the county would be abolished and a board of three assessors to be named by the Commissioners or Court, would have full charge of the valuation work.

All county laws are codified in one act without change in the provisions now in effect. Some of the laws have been on the statute books for a century and it is desired that these obsolete rulings be wiped out and a clean set of county laws be enacted so that there will be uniformity and all County Commissioners will be free from entanglements from age-old laws.

A short discussion of the proper truck tonnage to be allowed to pass over county bridges came up. According to the new code all the bridges would be built to carry 13 tons.

The working of the Mothers' Assistance Fund in Berks, as a model for those of other counties, with 90 mothers and 328 pupils in charge, was described by the Berks chairman, Mrs. Isaac Hiester.

REPUBLICAN HARMONY

Will Give Coolidge Record Vote in Montgomery County.

With all political kinks ironed out and with all factions united in support of the national and county ticket, Montgomery Republicans are expected to give the greatest demonstration of their strength in the history of the county on Election day.

For the first time in years there are no schisms in the party battle lines. This, coupled with the largest registration Montgomery has ever had, points to an unprecedented Republican plurality on November 4.

More than 110,000 voters are eligible to cast ballots in the county, and the more optimistic workers predict that 100,000 will go to the polls. Conservatives put the figure a little lower and will be satisfied if the vote reaches 75,000. The optimists base their prediction upon the fact that the women's campaign to bring about registration has resulted in the listing of 54,414 of the fair sex, which is just 1200 less than the total of males. It is figured that virtually all these voters will go to the polls now that they have taken the trouble to register. This, with the normal vote of men, is counted upon to put the total of ballots near the high mark set.

The absence of factional feeling is a matter of gratification to party leaders, who are intent upon piling up an enormous Coolidge plurality. Montgomery is regarded as one of the President's strongholds in the State, with little or no La Follette sentiment, and leaders are looking to it to offset any third-party gains that might be recorded in centres where the radical sentiment has gained strength.

The primaries left no unpleasant memories to be forgotten. Opposition to the organization Assembly ticket was perfunctory. Congressman Watson was unopposed for re-nomination. Even the warring Hatfield-Stites tongs have laid aside the hatchet temporarily in the general desire to roll up an enormous Coolidge vote. There are no county offices to be filled, hence no reason for a split Republican vote.

The Democratic party seems to have collapsed in the county. That seat of Al Smith at Madison Square Garden was a severe blow to Charles D. McAvoy, leader of the "unterrified," and the former United States District Attorney has done virtually nothing in the campaign.

Pupils Receiving Honors for the First Period.

First Honors: R. Barclay, E. Reese, J. Richardson, E. Hunt.

Second Honors: H. Messec, H. Sheneman, E. Terry, B. Robb, R. Hopkins, W. Henderson, E. Mich-aelsen.

The enrollment of pupils has reached 630. We have had such good weather for hockey practice that it is hoped the girls will soon have a school hockey team. Miss Church has said we may get a game with Lower Merion Junior High.

The Narberth Junior High Soccer team has 3 games scheduled. They are as follows: October 31, November 8 and November 19. The game on October 31 will be played away with Oliver Wendell Holmes Junior High School. The second game is with the same team at home. The game on November 19 will be with Haverford at Haverford. Mr. Orlein, the gymnastic teacher, has been talking about having volleyball games between the grades. The grade winning will receive a pennant with the grade and year written on it. It will be posted in the gymnasium.

Mr. Orlein has started an athletic association. Junior High membership is 50 cents, and elementary membership is 25 cents. So far we have collected nearly thirty dollars. The officers have not yet been announced.

What's Your Opinion?

When some folks on the southside heard that there were going to be some old-fashioned revival meetings at the Methodist Church beginning with Sunday evening, November 9, and continuing for two weeks, the question was immediately asked:

"Is there any place for revival meetings in these days of careless indifference toward church attendance?"

One bridge devotee responded with a sarcastic twist of her lips, while her escort waved the question with a shrug of his shoulders. However, the question was put to the group by a persistent resident, one who had lived in Narberth many years, and she was not quite so positive in her own mind on the subject as the others seemed to be, so queried a good church member of the town, standing nearby.

The reply was direct, and impressed the listeners:

"Only one-fifth of this town goes to church, and not that number regularly. That answers your question in itself. At these services Mr. Dawson, of the Methodist Church, is going to have such speakers as Dr. C. M. Boswell, W. L. Anthor, W. J. Downing and other prominent members of the Philadelphia Conference. They will start promptly at 8 o'clock and special music is being arranged. I want you all to promise to come up at least two evenings each week. They will be held every evening except Saturday, starting with Sunday evening, November 9, and if you don't agree with me that we need old-time revivals, I'll treat you all to the dinner at the Methodist Fair in December!"

"Agreed!" was the unanimous assent, and the little group adjourned to meet at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening, November 9.

LOWER MERION HIGH NEWS

Lower Merion, 26: Abington, 0.

Lower Merion made it 23 straight by defeating the strong Abington aggregation in football at Ardmore Saturday. Although Heinie Miller's proteges proved worthy opponents, the Forestburgites satisfied themselves with 26 points in lieu of their opponents nothing.

playing combined with Gene Kuen's and Paul Scull's brilliancy, worked like an adding machine in tallying defensively and offensively, and demon on the defense. Swartz and Lockwood, wingmen, played well Kuen helped provide the necessary punch by intercepting one of the visitors passes and racing to their Captain Peabody's usual good points. Captain Peabody tallied two of the maroon and white men's touchdowns, while Kuen and Scull each registered one.

The game was hotly contested by Abington and at no time was this team easy for Lower Merion. Rubischon, sub-halfback, although only in for little more than one quarter, proved himself very effectual by making more yardage than any other player with his cyclonic end runs while Mowery consistently tore holes through centre. Scull played the usual quarterback position with ease and facility, scoring on a reverse play and kicking a drop over the bars for the extra point.

Dillworth, who has been out with foot injuries, staged a welcome comeback and proved himself a goal for a six-pointer.

The visitors succeeded in breaking up the Ardmore machine's famed aerial attack but didn't accomplish anything by doing so, being steadily carried off their feet by the straight football of the Ardmore eleven.

The score:
Lower Merion... 6 7 6 7—26

STANDARD BOOKS REQUESTED

Library Needs Works of Standard Authors.

The October bulletin of books added to the Library is the 24th in the series and the first one to carry the announcement of the Library's daily opening. Apparently every resident of the borough has become acquainted with this fact but just because of the pleasure and satisfaction which it gives to those who have long had this aim in mind, no opportunity is neglected for stating that on every day of the week except Saturday and Sunday, the library is open from 3 to 5, and every person in the community is welcome. Many persons think that the library is open only for the distribution of current literature, and while that is the principal activity at present, there is among the library workers a constant endeavor to acquire and prepare for ready access all kinds of material necessary in looking up general information. Reference books are very expensive and the number on the shelves increases very slowly. Any persons who have college text books of recent date, or standard literature of any period would confer a great favor on the library and thus on the community if they would contribute such books to the library. All books of standard authors are on the required reading lists in the High School, and it is important that the library should be equipped to supply such material.

Many such contributions have been received recently but many more could be used, the works of Tennyson, Browning, Keats, Longfellow, Wordsworth, Bryant among the poets; Scott, Thackeray, Dickens and Austin among the novelists. They may be left at the library at any time.

The sole income of the library is from the rental of new books. Following is a list of those which have been added during the month of October:

Non-Fiction.

"Poems" (inclusive edition)—Rudyard Kipling.
"A Thread of English Road"—Charles Brooks.

Fiction.

"Balisand"—Jos. Hergesheimer.
"Charles Sees It Through"—Margaret Widdemer.
"The Clouded Pearls"—Berta Ruck.
"The Devonshers"—Honore Willson Morrow.
"East of the Setting Sun"—George Barr McCutcheon.
"The House of the Arrow"—A. E. W. Mason.
"Marbacka"—Selma Lagerlof.
"Nina"—Susan Ertz.
"The Old Ladies"—Hugh Walpole.
"Red Riders"—Thomas Nelson Page.
"The Store of a Whim"—Grace L. Hill.
"Rugged Water"—Joseph Lincoln.
"Sunrise"—Marie Van Vorst.

Legion Asks That Flags Be Displayed

We have on the next two consecutive Tuesdays, days that mean much to our country.

The first is election day, and on this occasion the Harold D. Speakman Post asks the patriotic citizens of Narberth to do two things. First, VOTE. Thousands of men and women died and suffered that they and you might have a voice in how this fair country is to be governed and to not take advantage of this heritage is an indication of a spineless or visionless individual. Regardless of your convictions—VOTE. Second, display your flags. Voting is an act of patriotism and the Stars and Stripes is our emblem for that worthy quality.

The second Tuesday, November 11, is Armistice Day, and on this day also, the local Legion Post asks that two things be done. First, display your flag. Second, stop anything that you are doing promptly at 11 A. M. and stand for one minute with head bowed in silent memory of those American sons who gave their lives in the late war for the freedom and honor of our country.

These are simple requests. They will be gladly adhered to by every true red-blooded American.

We appreciate your help in sending us personal items.

SOME COMMUNITY CENTER CRITICISMS ANSWERED

grounds and playground instructors would be furnished by the School Board, which board is required by law to have and to maintain in each school district. The heat, light and janitor service would be paid for from the rental income of the building, and an investigation by the committee of the Y. M. C. A. upkeep convinced it that this would be easily possible. The borough building would be free from debt, therefore carrying expenses lighter even than was the case with the Y. M. C. A. building, which was heavily mortgaged and under other financial obligations, and which, when run merely as a rentable building, was run at a profit.

The location has been mildly the subject of criticism, yet this can hardly be considered seriously, as there is no other location available, and, furthermore, the location proposed is certainly in close proximity to all sections of the borough. Present tendency in all communities is to locate a community centre of this kind away from the heart of the business section.

"The committee was advised," they say, "that the location is a noisy one and therefore objectionable for an auditorium." While passing trains do create an element of noise, the location in this respect is no worse than the center-of-town location, were one available, and most certainly from the viewpoint of street noises, it is as quiet a location as could be found. This criticism, the committee holds, is without merit, pointing out that even the train noises will rapidly diminish with the greater use of electric traction that is bound to be the case in the next few years.

"Thus," says the committee, "most of the criticisms are apparently the result of a lack of complete understanding."

The committee has done its work merely as appointed representatives of the citizens through some 30 local organizations. It has merely presented its plan as the citizens' plan and for the citizens to decide as to its acceptability. The proposed development is not an "Organization Center"—it will in every sense be a "Community Center," devoted to the activities of all citizens—something that is needed and will be a boost to Narberth—the year 'round home town.
